

Yang Liu

Partner

PRACTICES: Compliance / Regulatory, Corporate and M&A

 15810130611

 yangliu@myhrtr.com

 Beijing

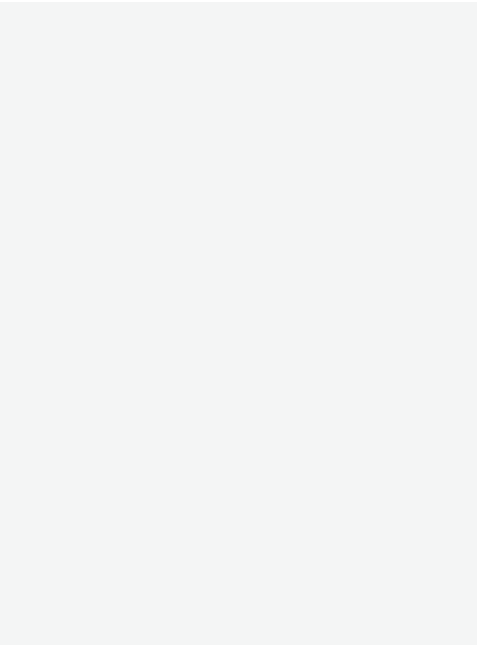

EDUCATION

Southwest University of Political Science and Law Master of Civil and Commercial Law

EXPERIENCE

As a seasoned lawyer, Ms. Yang has long focused on the construction of corporate compliance system, bankruptcy reorganization and liquidation, finance and capital markets, and acted as long-term legal advisor to many corporate clients based on retainer arrangements and advised them on quite a number of major M&A and restructuring transactions. For many years, Ms. Yang has maintained good cooperative relations with many large state-owned enterprises and famous private-owned enterprises, providing clients with professional and systematic litigation and non-litigation legal services.

Ms. Yang is good at building a comprehensive compliance management system for large and medium-sized enterprises, which advising on establishment, alternation of a company, reconstruction of enterprises and institutions, property right transaction, issuing and listing stocks, bankruptcy liquidation, such as the collection of non-performing assets, rescue and liquidation of difficult companies, formulation and implementation of restructuring plans, declaration of claims, investment withdrawal, etc.. Meanwhile, she has rich experience in responding to the compliance review of overseas investment and export control, compliance and prevention and control of anti-commercial bribery and anti-corruption, entire process of construction and engineering compliance and other general compliance fields. She is able to provide high-quality legal services in full-cycle, achieving a win-win relationship between legal and commercial interests for clients, which is getting generally highly evaluated.

SOCIAL APPOINTMENT

- Member of China Law Society
- Member of China Law Society Criminal Executive Law Research Association
- Member of Beijing Law Society Corporate Risk Control Research Association